

20 Of The Coolest And Most Delicious Wines For Your Thanksgiving Dinner

Thanksgiving is by nature a jumble of both dishes and people and the bigger the crowd around the table, which should be heaving with dishes from family and friends, the better. This is why one needs a stable of wine offerings to meet the moment in all of its tasty chaos. Some love a spicy red, others a racy white. This is a tasted, vetted and crowd-approved list of wines in every price point that will make everyone happy at your gathering this year.

Ponzi Pinot Gris, Oregon, 2022: Pinot Gris is a rather unsung Oregon specialty that is worth exploring as an alternative to your usual white wine options. This expression shows aromas of pear laced with a bit of spice and juicy tropical notes. Pretty and elegant, it is a refreshing white suitable for the start of the meal. $24

Château de Nalys - Saintes Pierres de Nalys Châteauneuf-du-Pape 2019: Brimming with bold, ripe red fruits, notes of spice and minerality, this is a bold red that shows marvelous freshness as well. Generous and rich, it will work wonderfully with turkey or a sausage-based stuffing. A great option for your full-bodied red lovers. $70
